

North Hastings

Your chance to win a valuable piece of art from a well-known local artist.

A

Joyce Burkholder—Joyce's paintings reflect her love and appreciation of the Canadian landscape. She prefers to paint outdoors, on location regardless of the season. Through her art Joyce hopes to portray the beauty in which she lives so others may experience the wilderness.

B

Russ Clark—Russ was introduced to wood carving in 1994. He learned and refined his craft while studying under Master Carver, Glenn McMurdo. He creates each piece using various hand and power tools and hand paints each piece. He has competed at various competitions in Canada and the U.S. where he has won several awards. The "Emperor Goose" carving won multiple awards at the Ward World Wildfowl carving competition in Ocean City, Maryland.

C

Anita Murphy—Anita attended both the Schneider School of Fine Art and St. Lawrence College. She has always lived in the country with nature and this plays a big part in her creative work. Her work can be found in private collections all over the world. In 2015, Anita opened Bridge Street Art in Bancroft, which represents several of North Hastings finest painters.

D

Tom Spatafore—Tom is an avid outdoorsman, he was raised in Southern Ontario and vacationed in Northern Ontario where he developed his lifelong admiration of the Canadian wilderness. Tom moved to Coe Hill in 1973 and began painting in the 1980's. His favourite medium is working in acrylics; he is also an accomplished sculptor and carver.

E

Cheryl Ellenberger—Cheryl finds inspiration everywhere and loves abstracting the shapes in a modern landscape style. Cheryl loves to teach art to others. You can find her in her studio—a space where she can be content, challenged and dream.

F

David Kay—David has been drawing and painting since an early age. He currently lives in Whitney at the edge of Algonquin Park. He spends time outdoors appreciating nature which is reflected in his paintings. His work can be found across Canada and around the world.

G

Linda Sorensen—Linda is a student of the renowned Canadian artist Robert Bateman. Linda lives her life as an artist and is an advocate for nature. Linda's approach to her art involves hands on adventures in Algonquin Park.

H

Brent Townsend—Brent is a highly respected wildlife artist who lets his paintings speak for themselves. His passion for the outdoors combined with his talent, allows him to create works of art that aren't just portraits of wildlife, but scenes that relay the intimate connection the animals have with their habitat. In 1996 he designed the portrait of the polar bear that appears on the Canadian "Toonie".

I

Arne Roosman—Lithographer, Designer of books, stage and murals. Illustrator and Painter. Born in Tallinn, Estonia. He studied art in Sweden and came to Canada in 1957. Arne has exhibited in Canada and abroad and has won many awards. He has lived in Bancroft since 1988.

J

Bob Perkins—Bob studied art at Southern Illinois University. He is the former head of the Art Department at Madawaska Valley District High School in Barry's Bay. He is the recipient of the Prime Minister's Award for Teaching Excellence. Bob uses varied mediums, and has done many drawings of local landmarks for public and private collections including the Bancroft Hospital.

Only 250 tickets to be sold. Tickets $100.00 each

Make your top 3 picks for even better odds to win your choice (choices not guaranteed)

Draw Date: September 13, 2017

Tickets available at North Hastings Hospital or call 613-332-2825 ext 6222